

Join us for Timbuctoo Day 2019

This year, we will:

- Honor Mount Moriah AME Church, one of New Jersey's oldest African American congregations, established in 1826.
- Exhibit and award artwork of RVRHS students' depictions of a failed attempt to capture an African American family reported in the New Jersey Mirror in 1860.
- Recognize Westampton and RVRHS teachers who wrote curricula about Timbuctoo.
- Honor the descendants of Antonio and Pauline Rogers, who came to Timbuctoo in the early 1940s.

Also:

- Interpretive Dancers
- Music by Wesley AME Zion Church Choir
- Reenactment by 6th Regiment US Colored Troops
- Food Vendors

SPECIAL GUEST: DR. SAM LEMON

Dr. Lemon is a highly respected author and professor, and a member of Providence Monthly (Quaker) Meeting. He is also a descendant of a family that escaped slavery in Virginia and resettled in Media, PA with the assistance of Quakers. He will talk about his family story and the role of Quakers in the abolition movement
